

It happens more often than any of us want to believe. Each year, over 3 million American children are reported as abused... physically attacked, emotionally damaged, sexually molested, or severely neglected - often by the people they have loved and trusted most.

Community of Hope's

Annual Kick-Off

Sunday, February 26th, 2012
from 12:30pm to 4:30pm
at Community of Hope
27817 SW Stafford Rd
Wilsonville, OR 97070

Our Kick-Off will consist of lunch, a motivational speaker, and then break-out groups for new and returning volunteers. New volunteers will get to hear more about Royal Family Kids' Inc., what happens at camp, and how to get involved. Returning volunteers will participate in a discussion group around the planning of our 2012 camp and will be able to share ideas on how to improve on past years.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP to Chelsie Vukovich at 503-880-9261 or chelsievukovich@gmail.com by Wednesday February 22nd so we can make sure we have enough food and seating for everyone.

The primary purpose of Royal Family Kids' Camp is to give children a week of positive memories in a Christian environment.

Royal Family Kids' is a non-profit international Christian organization that was created to address the issue of child abuse and neglect. Camp provides foster children with the chance to attend a five-day camp where they are taught Christian love and care, with adults modeling a non-violent, positive way of life.
